Term 1 - Number 5

Thursday, 3rd October 2019

If you have not yet done so, please can you sign up for an appointment time at parents' evening next week. The teachers will be based in the halls and you will have an opportunity to look through the work that your child has done this term in their classroom. Please also remember that there will be no teacher led clubs after school on Tuesday and Wednesday next week but that the Travelling Book Fair will be visiting and set up in the Entrance Foyer.

We also have our Harvest Festival next Wednesday in church. It is always special to visit the church as a whole school for a service and we have been practising singing our harvest hymns! As mentioned in last week's newsletter, we will be collecting for Cricklade Foodbank this year (which is due to open in November.) Any tinned or packet contributions are much appreciated but the attached list forms the basis of highly required items if you would like some direction with your donation. Jennifer Bayne

Volunteers to hear readers

We all know how important it is for children to have the opportunity to read aloud to an adult and appreciate the time that you spend with your children doing this at home. It is invaluable. If you, or a grandparent, is able to give up some time regularly each week to come in and hear some of our children read in school, we would be very grateful. We can give you full support in terms of guidance as to how you can help the children make progress with their reading and book choice. We also appreciate that some weeks might be tricky than others! However, as we would do a DBS check and ask for safeguarding references, we would ask for some regular commitment. If this is something that you are interested in doing, please speak to myself or your child's class teacher. Thank you ☺
